

Madison County Substance Misuse Resource Guide

Updated January 2026

ASAM [American Society of Addiction Medicine] levels of care offer a consistent structure for aligning individuals with the appropriate level of substance use treatment by taking into account clinical needs, safety factors, and recovery supports to ensure treatment is effective and delivered at the proper intensity ranging from low-intensity outpatient services to 24/7 medically supervised inpatient services

Substance Misuse Treatment Services

Outpatient (OP) Treatment Programs: Provide counseling and support while allowing individuals to live at home and continue daily activities
